

Best in Snow, David Rosenfelt

Rosenfelt turns out another delightful who-dun-it story featuring his favorite lawyer, Andy Carpenter in this holiday themed mystery. While taking his three dogs out for a final evening stroll, Andy finds himself looking at Paterson's newest murder victim, the town mayor. Only hours later Andy's good friend Vince calls with a special request. Vince had been forced to fire of his young newspaper reporters, Bobby Nash, for writing a story about the mayor that was based on false information. Bobby has been found unconscious in a one car accident, and is soon charged with murder.

The story only gets better as Rosenfelt adds in a couple more murders, several bombings, and some crazy crime scene connections.
