

El don de una familia/ The Gift of Family (Disney Encanto)* by Susana Illera Martínez, illustrated by Denise Shimabukuro and the Disney Storybook Art Team

This adorable bilingual children's book is great for kids who loved Encanto. The art is done by the Disney Storybook Art Team, so it is just as beautiful as the art in the film. The book is written in both Spanish and English, Spanish is printed in green and English is printed in blue. In the ebook version on Libby, there is also an option to listen to a narrator read the book to you. As the words are read, they are highlighted in a pale yellow. This is especially helpful to learn pronunciation for the Spanish words. For someone trying to learn Spanish, books like this are wonderful! The story follows that of the movie, but only goes up to Antonio receiving his gift. So if you haven't seen the movie, it doesn't spoil anything! Overall a quick, fun read!
