

How to Stitch an American Dream: a Story of Family, Faith & the Power of Giving* by Jenny Doan

The author of How to Stitch an American Dream is the founder of the Missouri Star Quilt Company. This moving memoir is the history behind the world's largest quilt company, and how a small store front known for helping people learn to quilt went worldwide using a series of online tutorials. This is a quick feel-good story involving family, friends and community, with a few favorite recipes at the end.
