

The Recovery Agent* by Janet Evanovich

Janet Evanovich's newest book introduces readers to a new character, Gabriela Rose. Gabriela is a recovery agent - the person sent in by an insurance agency, a company, or even a family member to find a lost treasure or missing heirloom. Gabriela is really, really good at what she does so when her family needs someone to find the Ring of Solomon that is connected to their family and could provide enough money to help the family and the entire community recover from a disastrous hurricane, they call Gabriela! She finds herself relying on information her granny receives from a ghost in a dream, working with her ex-husband and wondering through the jungle in Peru. But if anyone is up to the trip it's Gabriela, and her family knows she will work at this until she finds the ring...or dies trying. The Recovery Agent is the first book in new series by Evanovich so you don't want to skip this one.
